

♪ Singing/Vocal, Violin/Viola, Piano or Composition Lessons including Cellular Music Therapy Healing sessions ♪

Tune&Heal Academy and Healing Center will be offering school including In-Depth Cellular Music Therapy to high need clients.

We are pleased to announce that our branch in the United States is ready to serve you. Get lessons & healing sessions from European favorite Music School and Healing Center!

Learn from the experts how to do not strain your voice, overcome jitters, improve your breathing and posture, write songs, perform without nervousness and how sound operates on the cellular level of your physical body or music works with your body, mind and spirit at the same time!

Did you know that your voice is like your business card and represents your state of mind, emotions or feelings and even can reveal medical problems that you struggle with? Learn today why it is very powerful and healthy for you to play instruments and sing or use tuning forks as healing tools.

And do not be dismayed or discouraged, do not give up if someone made you thinking you have no musical talent! You do not need any musical education or talents to sing, play and create music or heal yourself with sound! You deserve to be healthy and happy and you can make it with pleasure of singing and playing music or healing with tuning forks!

Remember that the first musical scale was created by Pythagoras and he made it "to heal people". We use this healing scale in our Tune&Heal mission with dozens of techniques to improve your emotional and physical health. so do not wait and let this medicine be yours now!
